Madison, and., 1858.

Dr. Gro. W. Phillips, Cincinnati, Chio;—Having used several small bottles of your "Cough Syrup, persenally and in my family, and having seen its effects on others, in numerous instances of severe coldend coughs, I most obserfully recommend it as an infallible remedy in all such cases. If this Syrup were in general use, I confidently believe a large majority of the coldes, accompanied by coughs, that now terminate in Consumption, would be effectually arrested in fact, I can seen onecessity for any, who can obta this remedy, being thus afflicted.

Respectfully yours,

CINCINNATI, Dec. 5, 1856.

Dr. G. W. PHILLIPS—Dear Sir: Your Cough Mixture has been used with great success in my family. It belie at to be a most safe and efficacious preparation for the cure of ordinary coids, as well as of chronic affections of the throat and lungs. Many of my neighbors, who have fail the good effects of this medicine, assure me that they regard it with great favor.

Tis Found! SOMETHING

Dr. CHAMBERLAIN Has taken rooms Nos. 1 and 4 in Bacon's Building, corner of Walnut and Sixth streets, and is now introducing his new and important discovery for the cure of the most obstinate chronic diseases. He makes no compromise with the stomach, in the way of medications, but relies solely upon the most subtle and powerful of all agents, ELECTRICITY.

His recent discoveries in the application of this vitalizing force seldom fall to produce speedy and permanent cure in Dysepsia, Liver Complaints, Paralysis or Palsy, Consumption in the early and middle stages, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Heart Palpitation, all classes of Uterine Diseases, Catarrh, Dlabets, Skin Diseases, Amaurosis, Desfness, General Debility, and every species of Nervous Chronic Diseases. cases.

The diseased should not fail to call and examine the astonishing cures effected, frequently in a single Office hours from 9 A. M. to 5 P. M. Consultation free.
Dr. Chamberlain has associated with him Mrs. E.
J. HALL, M. D., of New York City, who has had an extensive experience in the treatment of diseases electropathically and otherwise, especially those poculiar to her own sex. Ladies suffering from disease

New and Invaluable Remedy for the Cure of Rupture.

A CERTAIN CURE. The undersigned prepares a Plaster out of Swiss Alpine horbs, which he can recommend to all suffering of Repture, as a remedy which will cure this painful disease in the oldest of cases, in a short time, without 'pains. Having proved its most wonderful healing power during many years' practice in Switzerland and Germany, he would invite all ruptured persons to give it a fair trial. One pot of it, (the price of which is $3.) will affect a cure in most cases. It is for sale at A. TAFEL'S Drug Store, north-east corner of Sixth and Main streets, Cheinnath.

CINCINNATI, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 23

ON HIDING THE ASHES. [The following anonymous poem, suggested by seeing a young lady retire behind the door, with a shovel full of ashes, which she intended to have thrown upon the toy foot-path, appears in the Boston Transcript. The writer molestly states that it is "after the man-ner of Burns"—a very meritorious imitation, the reader will say :]

My bonnic bassle, dinna hide
Wi'in the lobble.
Weak aid lends ever sic sma' pride
To ony jobble.
One would suppose 'twas in the law
Among the crimes,
To shield a neebor frae a fa'
In silppury times.

But fairer shaws that han' sae so fair. Thus scatterin' ashes. Than 'mongst the glitter and the glair, O' diamond flashes.

What e'er ye undertake to do,
Let it appear,
An' gin the impulse be but true,
Ye need na' fear.

There's virtue in the sma'est work. The soul determines. The sidewalk thus may prove a kirk! The ashes sermons! EDITORIAL FESS.—On Wednesday, the river reporter of the New Albany Tribune, and Mr. Mathews, of the New Albany Ledger, had a difficulty on the ferry-boat. Mathews struck the reporter several times with a cane, but the reporter quickly possessed himself of the punitive instrument, and laid it roundly on the shoulders of Mathews. The latter then drew pasted and feed trains another of the photoa pistol and fired twice—neither of the shots, however, taking effect. A cotemporary adds: "The fass then cooled down—Mr. M. quit shooting, when the reporter quit striking. We are very sorry to hear this. Editors should be try :

"He has not gone for amusement, or health, or, as some have said, to study the political in-stitutions there. The simple fact is that Mr. Cobden has, I am sorry to learn, invested considerable sum in American railways, and is gone to look after it."

If he succeeds in finding it, several of our friends would be glad to have the benefit of his experience. We have no objection to an En-glishman's exercising this kind of "right of search."-Providence Journal.

CHESS.—A chess club is being formed at Co-lumbus, O., and other cities. Chess is all the rage just now. Instead of psalters or the like, young men carry chess-boards in their side-pockets. Would that the carrying of the harm-less board about the person became quite gen-eral, to the total exclusion of Bowie-knives and revolvers.

An American, Mr. Berling, has launched upon the Amoor a little steamer, 125 feet long, drawing two feet of water. The Governor-General will go on her first trip up the river. The new Russian town on the western frontier of China, Verace, has sprung up with American rapidity. It has already 5,000 inhabitants, and is in the same latitude as Milan. Cotton and wine are produced near it.

In New York, on Tuesday, Judge Clarke made a happy woman of Mra. Cora L. V. The Illinois Central Railroad Directors have acted nobly toward those settlers along their lines of railroad who were unable to pay up their contracts. To their honor, be it said, none of these settlers have been notified to leave, no matter what their indebtedness; but, on the contrary, they have been urged to stay and improve them the coming season, and most of them will do so.

In 1852 a grocer, named Ostler, who resided in Northgate, Halifax, failed in business, and went off unceremoniously to Australia. The trial of the thirty-seven citizens of Lorain, indicted for rescuing and aiding in the resone of the alleged slave John Price, has, at the urgent request of the Prosecuting Attorney, been put over to April 5th. The adjournment has cost the defense considerable inconvenience, and is much regretted by them.

A phrenologist named Barrs, has made the astonishing discovery that Henry Jumperts, condemned to be hung in Chicage for barreling his mistress for an Eastern market, is so like Prince Albert (Queen Victoria's husband) that he might easily be mistaken for that distinguished personage.

In New York, William H. Adams and others have petitioned the Common Council for a railway from Central Park to the South Ferry, through Broadway, and offered to pay for the grant the sum of $500,000, and indemnify all the stage route companies that may be injur-iously affected thereby.

The Sydney Morning Herald, received by the last Australian mail, says that the British Government has purchased 200,000 acres of land from the Fejee Islanders, for the sum of $45,000, to be paid to satisfy the American claims against the Fejee Government.

RETIRING FROM PUBLIC LIFE .- It is said that Senator Johnson, of Arkansas, intends to re-tire from public life at the close of his Senatorial term, if not before. Like many other public men, he has become tired and disgusted with Congressional life, and convinced that it leads to habits and tastes not congenial with domes-tic happiness and moral purity; that one's pubtic duties here can not be properly attended to without neglecting the higher and more important duties which devolve upon the head of a large family. Society at Washington is a vortex, which, like the great maelstrom, draws in and engulphs nearly all who permit themselves to fall into its current, or even carelessly play upon its outer edge. Mr. Calhoun was a rare instance of a man who could, as it were, walk in the midst of fire without having a hair of his head scorehod; but he seldom left the precincts of his fire-side circle, and rever indulged in those deleterious social habits whose gates open upon the path that leads to perdition. The social glass had no attractions for, or power over, him. Conversation was his only social stimulant and luxury. At parties he rarely appeared, and when he did his stay was brief—he came and went like a comet. In the latter years of his life he never attended parties at all .- Wheeling Times. EDITORS' DUELS .- A fatal duel occurred near EDITORS' DUELS.—A fatal duel occurred near New Orleans, on the afternoon of the 11th inat., at Rickerville, the upper faubourg of the city, between Mr. Hiriart, one of the editors of the Delta, and Mr. Locquet, a cotton broker. On the previous Sunday, the Delta contained a stinging article from the pen of Hiriart, which aroused the ire of Mr. Canonge, editor of the Courier, and of Mr. Locquet, both of whom challenged Hiriart on the same day. He fought Canonge at Metarie Ridge on Thursday, and after three exchanges of shots, with no other damage than two or three rents in their clothes, the parties settled the affair. On Friday, Hirirties settled the affair. On Friday, Hiriart met Locquet at Rickerville. The weapons were double-barrel shot guns, loaded with musket balls—the distance, forty paces. At the first fire Mr. Lecquet fell, mortally wounded, and expired without breathing a word. Mr. Locquet's bullet struck the ground, and glancing up, struck Mr. Hiriart in the breast, stunning him violently and causing him to fall. The him violently and causing him to fall. The

SINGULAR AND PERSISTENT SUICIDE .- Mrs. Eliza Thum, a German woman residing on Chicago avenue, in Chicago, committed suicide on the 15th by drowning. She was married, about forty years of age, and leaves four chil-dren, three of whom are absent from home. The fourth, a boy, about five years of age, discovered her on Tuesday, just before noon, in the well, and gave the alarm. The well is simply a common barrel, sunk in the ground, and half filled with water. Into this she had plunged her head, leaving the greater part of her body still resting upon the ground. The cause of the deed is supposed to have been in-sanity, brought on by undue religious excite-ment. When found she had her arms folded, and within them, tightly clasped to fier bosom,
